

HUGH HOOKER

GENERAL COUNSEL & CORPORATE SECRETARY

As General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Energy Safety Canada, Hugh Hooker is responsible for all legal matters across the organization and works closely with Energy Safety Canada's Board of Directors on matters of corporate governance.

He was appointed General Counsel and Corporate Secretary on October 3, 2017.

Hugh has practiced corporate, commercial and resource law for more than 40 years and has held senior legal executive positions in large oil and gas organizations, including Petro-Canada, Amerada Hess Canada and Home Petroleum. Hugh has provided legal support related to governance, mergers and acquisitions, litigation and financial matters.

He holds degrees in law from the University of Alberta and in political science from the University of Calgary.

Hugh was a steward of the merger between Enform Canada and Oil Sands Safety Association (OSSA) as General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, providing legal and business guidance.
